

I am a rhino and well, I'm all snuggled and wrapped up in my warm hut. The waves of the deep sea bed are clambering up ahead. Even though I love the water I wouldn't like to be in the dirty sea now! I am super smelly and horrible to feel because my body is scaly, my horns are rough and scratchy, and also my teeth are rusty and my bottom is bare as can be! I'm grey and I can get in a temper. I would normally hurt a human but Noah is a good man you see!
