

Year 10's Double Trouble

Whiskers of a charcoal cat,
Septic tail of rotting rat,
Gruesome slime of squirming snail,
Congealed hair of ugly male.
Sailor's scalpel, sliced up scalp,
Pademelons' pallid palps.
*Double, double toil and trouble;
Fire burn, and cauldron bubble.*

Womb of maiden, crown of crone,
Bitter laden, dead whale's bone,
Horn of rhino, skull of crow,
Mouse's whiskers, Yeti's toe,
Tears of eagle, hurt bat's wing,
Nothing regal, spider's sting...
*Double, double toil and trouble;
Fire burn, and cauldron bubble.*

Leg of starfish, arm of fly
Wave of sea and gust of sky,
Ear of donkey, eye of ant,
Soil of land and leaf of plant
Stomach of bull and buttered whale,
Hood of monk and beak of quail,
Hair of clergy and blackmail of ghost,
Nose of clown and pig eye roast.
*Double, double toil and trouble;
Fire burn, and cauldron bubble.*

Snot of child and guts of pig,
Chicken feet and rotten fig,
Horses' hooves and mould of egg,
Sweaty sock and hairy leg.
Yellow teeth and sagging skin,
Gill of fish and juice of bin.
*Double, double toil and trouble;
Fire burn, and cauldron bubble.*

Children's ears and toes of goat,
Spit and tears from those who wrote,
Bulbous bat-bile, leg of dog,
Jellyfish jaw and skull of hog,
Marrow of the bone with froth
Add we now into our broth.
Hair of horse and snout of pig,
Hoof of cow and juice of fig,
Spine of hare and neck of rat,
Leg of bear and toe of cat.

*Cool it with a Year 10's blood,
Then the charm is firm and good.
Double, double toil and trouble;
Fire burn, and cauldron bubble.*
