

We put our Gran on eBay

We put our gran on eBay,
She wasn't very pleased.
But the roof blew off,
And windows shattered
Every time she sneezed.

We put our gran on eBay,
We really couldn't cope.
She spent a fortune texting
Prince Harry and the Pope.

We put our gran on eBay,
She really was too rude.
She'd 360 round the skate park,
Squawking 'S'UP?' to every dude.

We put our gran on eBay,
Things were heading for disaster.
We knew that she had gone too far
When she kidnapped my head master.

We sold our gran on eBay,
But it really wasn't funny,
When the buyer said she was damaged goods
And we had to refund all the money!
