The Principal's Update

The spirit of Christmas has continued to fill every inch of Howell's this week, from the top of the clock tower to the bottom of the swimming pool. On Monday, the final preparations took place for Tuesday's outstanding Carol Services. You can read more about our celebrations in Llandaff Cathedral later on in my update.

Monday also saw the launch of the Christmas Tree competition in the Senior School. Each form is tasked with decorating their own Christmas tree and this year we are going green with the theme, I'm Dreaming of A Green Christmas. I do so enjoy seeing their artistic skills come to fruition and look forward to seeing their creations, which I am sure will be spectacular.

There was a real sense of excitement among students and staff on Wednesday lunchtime, when the rehearsals for the House Panto Competition started with a bang. Our House Captains have penned their scripts, all based on Beauty and the Beast, and I really look forward to seeing what they come up with next Wednesday; it is always an extremely enjoyable and memorable day.

Yesterday, our unbeatable catering team—in a selection of Christmassy outfits—served students and staff a delicious Christmas lunch of turkey and all the trimmings followed by Christmas pudding and mince pies, which we enjoyed to a soundtrack of cheery Christmas hits. Thank you so much to Mrs Price and her team, they really are wonderful. Do take a look at our Twitter feed to see some photographs of the lunch.

Many thanks to our volunteer staff and friends and family of Howell's for manning the stations of the final Healthcare MMI circuit of the year which took place on Thursday. Well done to our future nurses, doctors, dentists, and pharmacists for rising to the challenge.

This afternoon, Year 7 were looking bright eyed and full of festive cheer as they headed to the Hub for their Christmas party. Thank you to Mrs Reed, Mrs Pritchard and everyone who made the celebration such a success.
